GOSPEL

During Mass you will hear the priest and people say, "Lord, have mercy. Christ, have mercy. Lord, have mercy." It means, "Lord, forgive me." You are human. You will make mistakes. God is proud when you are honest and admit that you did something wrong. He smiles when you forgive yourself and others. He frowns when you talk and act like you are better than others. God wants you to do right.

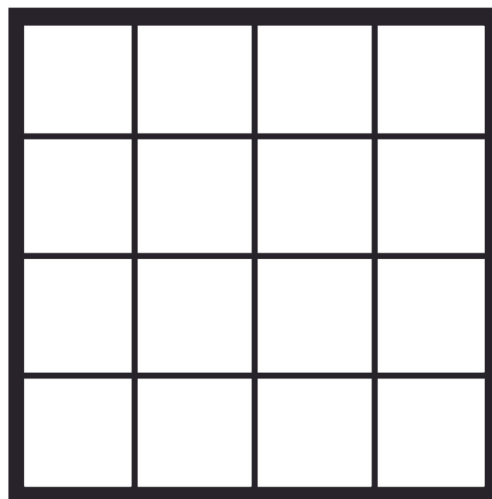

PRAYER

Lord, please forgive me.

PUZZLE

Draw the star square by square.

MISSION

I will ask God for forgiveness morning, noon, and night.

BECAUSE VIBRANT
CHURCHES MATTER

DE LA OFICINA DEL PARROCO

Queridos hermanos y hermanas,

El viernes pasado, 7 de octubre tuvimos nuestra celebración de la Fiesta de Nuestra Señora del Rosario en San Carlos. Fue una celebración preciosa, todas las niñas del grupo Hijas de María acudieron a la Misa vestidas de una de las advocaciones de la Virgen María. Al final de la Misa, muchos de nuestros feligreses trajeron un refrigerio para compartir con todos los asistentes a la Misa y tuvimos la oportunidad de reírnos y conocernos mejor.

La Iglesia Católica dedica cada mes del año a celebrar una determinada devoción, y octubre es el Mes del Rosario porque es el mes en que celebramos la Fiesta de Nuestra Señora del Rosario. Mi oración es que todas las familias de San Carlos lleven esta devoción a sus hogares. Si aún no lo han hecho, invito a todos los padres a que enseñen a sus hijos a rezar el Rosario. Después de la cena o antes de acostar a sus hijos, reúna a su familia y recen el Rosario con ellos. El Rosario tiene muchas gracias y ustedes podrán ver los frutos. En las próximas semanas en el espacio a continuación comenzaremos a leer una Carta Apostólica ROSARIUM VIRGINIS MARIAE escrita por San Pablo II a los Obispos, Clero y Fieles sobre el Santísimo Rosario. Espero que lo lean y les ayude a comprender por qué es importante que nuestras familias comiencen a rezar el Rosario en casa (en la página 9 puede ver como aprender a rezar el Santo Rosario).

En Cristo,

Padre Abelardo

➔ El Rosario me ha acompañado en los momentos de alegría y en los de tribulación. A él he confiado tantas preocupaciones y en él siempre he encontrado consuelo.

Los Romanos Pontífices y el Rosario

2. A esta oración le han atribuido gran importancia muchos de mis Predecesores. Un mérito particular a este respecto corresponde a León XIII que, el 1 de septiembre de 1883, promulgó la Encíclica Supremi apostolatus officio, [3] importante declaración con la cual inauguró otras muchas intervenciones sobre esta oración, indicándola como instrumento espiritual eficaz ante los males de la sociedad. Entre los Papas más recientes que, en la época conciliar, se han distinguido por la promoción del Rosario, deseo recordar al Beato Juan XXIII [4] y, sobre todo, a Pablo VI, que en la Exhortación apostólica Marialis cultus, en consonancia con la inspiración del Concilio Vaticano II, subrayó el carácter evangélico del Rosario y su orientación cristológica.

Yo mismo, después, no he dejado pasar ocasión de exhortar a rezar con frecuencia el Rosario. Esta oración ha tenido un puesto importante en mi vida espiritual desde mis años jóvenes. Me lo ha recordado mucho mi reciente viaje a Polonia, especialmente la visita al Santuario de Kalwaria. El Rosario me ha acompañado en los momentos de alegría y en los de tribulación. A él he confiado tantas preocupaciones y en él siempre he encontrado consuelo. Hace veinticuatro años, el 29 de octubre de 1978, dos semanas después de la elección a la Sede de Pedro, como abriendo mi alma, me expresé así: «El Rosario es mi oración predilecta. ¡Plegaria maravillosa! Maravillosa en su sencillez y en su profundidad. [...] Se puede decir que el Rosario es, en cierto modo, un comentario-oración sobre el capítulo final de la Constitución Lumen gentium del Vaticano II, capítulo que trata de la presencia admirable de la Madre de Dios en el misterio de Cristo y de la Iglesia. En efecto, con el trasfondo de las Avenidas pasan ante los ojos del alma los episodios principales de la vida de Jesucristo. El Rosario en su conjunto consta de misterios gozosos, dolorosos y gloriosos, y nos ponen en comunión vital con Jesús a través –podríamos decir– del Corazón de su Madre. Al mismo tiempo nuestro corazón puede incluir en estas decenas del Rosario todos los hechos que entran en la vida del individuo, la familia, la nación, la Iglesia y la humanidad. Experiencias personales o del prójimo, sobre todo de las personas más cercanas o que llevamos más en el corazón. De este modo la sencilla plegaria del Rosario sintoniza con el ritmo de la vida humana».[5]

FROM THE PASTOR'S OFFICE

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Last Friday, October 7th we had our celebration of the Feast of Our Lady of the Rosary at Saint Charles. It was a beautiful celebration, all the girls from the group the Daughters of Mary came to the Mass dressed as one of the advocations of the Virgin Mary. At the end of the Mass, many of our Parishioners brought some refreshments to share with everyone attending the Mass and we had the opportunity to laugh and get to know each other better.

The Catholic Church dedicates each month of the year to celebrate a certain devotion, and October is the Month of the Rosary because it is the month that we celebrate the Feast of Our Lady of the Rosary. My prayer is that all the families of Saint Charles bring this devotion to their homes. If you have not done it yet, I invite all the parents to teach their children how to pray the Rosary. After dinner or before putting your children to bed, gather your family together and pray the Rosary with them. The Rosary has many graces and you will see the fruits. In the next few weeks in the space below we will start reading an Apostolic Letter ROSARIUM VIRGINIS MARIAE written by Saint Paul II to the Bishops, Clergy and Faithful on the Most Holy Rosary. I hope you read it and it helps you understand why it is important to have our families start praying the Rosary at home (see page 9 to learn how to pray the Holy Rosary).

The Popes and the Rosary

In Christ,

Father Abelardo

The Rosary has accompanied me in moments of joy and in moments of difficulty. To it I have entrusted any number of concerns; in it I have always found comfort.

2. Numerous predecessors of mine attributed great importance to this prayer. Worthy of special note in this regard is Pope Leo XIII who on 1 September 1883 promulgated the Encyclical Supremi Apostolatus Officio,⁽³⁾ a document of great worth, the first of his many statements about this prayer, in which he proposed the Rosary as an effective spiritual weapon against the evils afflicting society. Among the more recent Popes who, from the time of the Second Vatican Council, have distinguished themselves in promoting the Rosary I would mention Blessed John XXIII⁽⁴⁾ and above all Pope Paul VI, who in his Apostolic Exhortation Marialis Cultus emphasized, in the spirit of the Second Vatican Council, the Rosary's evangelical character and its Christocentric inspiration.

I myself have often encouraged the frequent recitation of the Rosary. From my youthful years this prayer has held an important place in my spiritual life. I was powerfully reminded of this during my recent visit to Poland, and in particular at the Shrine of Kalwaria. The Rosary has accompanied me in moments of joy and in moments of difficulty. To it I have entrusted any number of concerns; in it I have always found comfort. Twenty-four years ago, on 29 October 1978, scarcely two weeks after my election to the See of Peter, I frankly admitted: "The Rosary is my favourite prayer. A marvellous prayer! Marvellous in its simplicity and its depth. [...] It can be said that the Rosary is, in some sense, a prayer-commentary on the final chapter of the Vatican II Constitution Lumen Gentium, a chapter which discusses the wondrous presence of the Mother of God in the mystery of Christ and the Church. Against the background of the words Ave Maria the principal events of the life of Jesus Christ pass before the eyes of the soul. They take shape in the complete series of the joyful, sorrowful and glorious mysteries, and they put us in living communion with Jesus through – we might say – the heart of his Mother. At the same time our heart can embrace in the decades of the Rosary all the events that make up the lives of individuals, families, nations, the Church, and all mankind. Our personal concerns and those of our neighbour, especially those who are closest to us, who are dearest to us. Thus the simple prayer of the Rosary marks the rhythm of human life".⁽⁵⁾ With these words, dear brothers and sisters, I set the first year of my Pontificate within the daily rhythm of the Rosary. Today, as I begin the twenty-fifth year of my service as the Successor of Peter, I wish to do the same. How many graces have I received in these years from the Blessed Virgin through the Rosary: Magnificat anima mea Dominum! I wish to lift up my thanks to the Lord in the words of his Most Holy Mother, under whose protection I have placed my Petrine ministry: Totus Tuus!
