The Sin of Indifference

Jesus tells the parable of a rich man who lived in comfort and excess while a poor man named Lazarus lay at his gate, covered in sores and longing for scraps. After death, their positions are completely reversed—Lazarus is carried to the side of Abraham in comfort, while the rich man finds himself in torment. This stark contrast reveals the dangers of spiritual blindness and the consequences of ignoring the suffering of others. The rich man didn't harm Lazarus directly—his sin was one of indifference, of seeing and doing nothing. When he begs for his family to be warned, Abraham replies that they already have Moses and the prophets—God's Word is enough, if only they are willing to listen. Jesus uses this parable to call each of us to deeper awareness and compassion, warning that wealth and comfort can easily insulate us from the needs of those around us. It is a powerful reminder that our eternal destiny is shaped not just by what we believe, but by how we live that belief in relationship to others, especially the poor and forgotten.

El pecado de la indiferencia

Jesús cuenta la parábola de un hombre rico que vivía en comodidad y exceso, mientras que un hombre pobre llamado Lázaro yacía a su puerta, cubierto de llagas y deseando aunque fuera las sobras. Tras la muerte, sus papeles se invierten: Lázaro es llevado al lado de Abraham y consolado, mientras el rico se encuentra en tormento. Este contraste revela los peligros de la ceguera espiritual y las consecuencias de ignorar el sufrimiento ajeno. El hombre rico no dañó directamente a Lázaro—su pecado fue la indiferencia, ver y no hacer nada. Cuando suplica que se advierta a su familia, Abraham responde que ya tienen a Moisés y los profetas—la Palabra de Dios es suficiente, si están dispuestos a escuchar. Jesús nos llama a una conciencia más profunda y a una mayor compasión, advirtiéndole que la riqueza y la comodidad pueden aislarnos fácilmente de las necesidades del prójimo. Es un recordatorio de que nuestro destino eterno depende no solo de lo que creemos, sino de cómo vivimos esa fe en relación con los demás, especialmente con los pobres y olvidados.

O pecado da indiferença

Jesus conta a parábola de um homem rico que vivia com conforto e luxo, enquanto um pobre chamado Lázaro ficava deitado à sua porta, coberto de feridas e desejando comer as sobras da mesa. Após a morte, suas posições se invertem: Lázaro é levado ao lado de Abraão e consolado, enquanto o rico se encontra em tormento. Esse contraste revela os perigos da cegueira espiritual e as consequências de ignorar o sofrimento alheio. O homem rico não prejudicou Lázaro diretamente—seu pecado foi a indiferença, ver e não fazer nada. Ao pedir que sua família seja avisada, Abraão responde que já têm Moisés e os profetas—a Palavra de Deus é suficiente, se houver disposição para ouvir. Jesus usa essa parábola para nos chamar a uma consciência mais profunda e compaixão verdadeira, alertando que a riqueza e o conforto podem nos afastar das necessidades do próximo. É um lembrete de que o destino eterno depende não só do que cremos, mas de como vivemos essa fé com os outros, especialmente os pobres e esquecidos.

In Christ,

Rev. Abelardo Vasquez

PARISH EVENTS

A REQUEST FROM BISHOP CAGGIANO: PLEASE PRAY FOR OUR PRIESTS DURING THE CONVOCATION

Bishop Caggiano asks for your prayers as he and all the priests of the Diocese of Bridgeport prepare to gather for the Seventh Convocation of Priests, taking place from Sunday, October 12 through Wednesday, October 15 at the Seminary of the Immaculate Conception in Huntington, NY.

The theme of this year's Convocation is "The Priest as a Man of Hope in the Year of Hope," and it will be developed by keynote speaker Monsignor Thomas Caserta. Monsignor Caserta, a priest of the Diocese of Brooklyn, has led retreats for priests, religious, seminarians, and lay faithful in over thirty dioceses and religious communities across the United States and Europe.

This three-day gathering aims to strengthen the fraternal bonds among our priests and offer a time of spiritual renewal, so they may return to their parishes with renewed energy and a deeper commitment to service.

Please note: Masses will not be celebrated in parishes throughout the Diocese from Monday, October 13 through Wednesday, October 15. However, priests from the Jesuit Community at Fairfield University and other religious orders will be available for sacramental emergencies.

Thank you for your prayers and support for this important event in the life of our priests and our Diocese.

PRAYER FOR THE SEVENTH CONVOCATION OF PRIESTS 2025

Gracious God, and Father, we thank you for the ministry of our priests who strive to serve us faithfully and selflessly in your name.

We ask your blessing upon them as they gather for their convocation from October 12 to 15. May their time together in prayer and fraternity strengthen them and encourage them so that they may return rekindled in the faith and renewed in holiness.

We also ask you to pour out the Holy Spirit upon all of us in the Diocese of Bridgeport so that we may all grow together in holiness:

- Sustain and strengthen our Bishop Frank, as our good and faithful shepherd;
- Keep our priests faithful to your son Jesus, the High Priest; inspire them to be brothers of one heart and mind, especially as they preach the Gospel and celebrate the sacraments;
- Preserve our deacons in their ministry to your word and in charity to those who are in need;
- Let our religious be compelling examples of the Joy we can find in leaving behind all things to follow your Son;
- Make every household to be a home where Christ-like love abounds and holiness is nurtured;
- Open the hearts of our young people to hear your Son's call and offer their lives in service to your Church, especially as priests, deacons and religious.

May the Blessed Virgin Mary, the Mother of all Christians of the Clergy, pray for us and lead us to a deeper love for her Son and our Savior, in whose name we pray, Jesus Christ, who is Lord for ever and ever. Amen

PARISH EVENTS

Priesthood Sunday

"I will give you shepherds after my own heart." – Jeremiah 3:15

On this special day, let's take a moment to thank our devoted priests, who have dedicated their lives to serving God and guiding His people to Him. Through their ministry, we receive the sacraments, spiritual guidance, and faithful leadership — blessings that strengthen our journey of faith.

We give thanks especially for the priests who have touched the life of our parish:

- Father Abelardo, our devoted pastor, leading us with wisdom, courage, and compassion.
- Father Ricardo, whose growth from seminarian to priest continues to inspire us.
- Father Penn, who has walked with us for over a decade in faithful service.
- Father Jose Jesus Montoya — affectionately known as Father Chucho — whose joyful heart brings light and love to our parish family.
- Father Kevin O'Brien, who leads our weekend Masses with reverence and kindness.

We also honor Deacon David and Deacon Fabio, whose years of quiet service have been a powerful witness of faith in action.

Let us also remember with gratitude all the priests, deacons, and seminarians who have served our parish over the years. Today, take a moment to thank any priest you encounter for their faithful service. May God continue to bless those who have answered His call, and may we support them always with our prayers and appreciation.

“Cast all your anxiety on Him because He cares for you”

1 Peter 5:7

Life is full of highs and lows, share your prayer requests — big or small — and know that someone is lifting you up in faith this week.

Cut this space and leave it in the intention box in the back of the Adoration Chapel — we're honored to pray with you and for you.
