What Are You Living For?

Today, Jesus tells us the parable of a dishonest steward who, after being accused of wasting his master's possessions, acts shrewdly to secure his future. Knowing he is about to be dismissed, he reduces the debts of his master's debtors to gain their favor. Surprisingly, the master praises him—not for his dishonesty, but for his cleverness and foresight. Jesus teaches that the children of this world are sometimes wiser in dealing with their own kind than the children of light. He invites His followers to be faithful in small things, because whoever is trustworthy in little will also be trustworthy in much. The passage ends with a powerful truth: "No servant can serve two masters... You cannot serve both God and money." Jesus reminds us that we, too, are stewards, and how we use our time, resources, and relationships reveals where our heart truly lies. We cannot serve both God and wealth—so we must ask ourselves each day, "Whom do I serve?" and choose to live for what has eternal value.

Para qué estás viviendo?

Hoy, Jesús nos cuenta la parábola de un administrador deshonesto que, tras ser acusado de malgastar los bienes de su señor, actúa con astucia para asegurar su futuro. Sabiendo que será despedido, reduce las deudas de los deudores para ganarse su favor. Sorprendentemente, el amo lo elogia, no por su deshonestidad, sino por su inteligencia y previsión. Jesús enseña que los hijos de este mundo, en su trato con los demás, a veces son más sabios que los hijos de la luz. Invita a sus seguidores a ser fieles en lo poco, porque quien lo es en lo pequeño, también lo será en lo mucho. El pasaje termina con una verdad contundente: "Ningún siervo puede servir a dos amos... No pueden servir a Dios y al dinero". Jesús nos recuerda que también somos administradores, y cómo usamos nuestro tiempo, recursos y relaciones muestra dónde está nuestro corazón. No podemos servir a Dios y a las riquezas — debemos preguntarnos cada día: "¿A quién sirvo?" y elegir vivir para lo que tiene valor eterno.

Para quê você está vivendo?

Hoje, Jesus conta a parábola de um administrador desonesto que, após ser acusado de desperdiçar os bens do seu senhor, age com esperteza para garantir seu futuro. Sabendo que seria demitido, ele reduz as dívidas dos devedores para conquistar o favor deles. Surpreendentemente, o patrão o elogia, não pela desonestidade, mas pela astúcia e visão. Jesus mostra que os filhos deste mundo muitas vezes são mais espertos que os filhos da luz. Ele chama seus seguidores à fidelidade no pouco, pois quem é fiel no pouco também será no muito. O trecho termina com uma verdade forte: "Nenhum servo pode servir a dois senhores... Vocês não podem servir a Deus e ao dinheiro." Jesus nos lembra que também somos administradores, e a forma como usamos nosso tempo, recursos e relacionamentos revela onde está nosso coração. Não dá para servir a Deus e às riquezas — por isso, devemos nos perguntar todos os dias: "A quem estou servindo?" e escolher viver para o que tem valor eterno.

PARISH EVENTS

A REQUEST FROM BISHOP CAGGIANO: PLEASE PRAY FOR OUR PRIESTS DURING THE CONVOCATION

Bishop Caggiano asks for your prayers as he and all the priests of the Diocese of Bridgeport prepare to gather for the Seventh Convocation of Priests, taking place from Sunday, October 12 through Wednesday, October 15 at the Seminary of the Immaculate Conception in Huntington, NY.

The theme of this year's Convocation is "The Priest as a Man of Hope in the Year of Hope," and it will be developed by keynote speaker Monsignor Thomas Caserta. Monsignor Caserta, a priest of the Diocese of Brooklyn, has led retreats for priests, religious, seminarians, and lay faithful in over thirty dioceses and religious communities across the United States and Europe.

This three-day gathering aims to strengthen the fraternal bonds among our priests and offer a time of spiritual renewal, so they may return to their parishes with renewed energy and a deeper commitment to service.

Please note: Masses will not be celebrated in parishes throughout the Diocese from Monday, October 13 through Wednesday, October 15. However, priests from the Jesuit Community at Fairfield University and other religious orders will be available for sacramental emergencies.

Thank you for your prayers and support for this important event in the life of our priests and our Diocese.

PRAYER FOR THE SEVENTH CONVOCATION OF PRIESTS 2025

Gracious God, and Father, we thank you for the ministry of our priests who strive to serve us faithfully and selflessly in your name.

We ask your blessing upon them as they gather for their convocation from October 12 to 15. May their time together in prayer and fraternity strengthen them and encourage them so that they may return rekindled in the faith and renewed in holiness.

We also ask you to pour out the Holy Spirit upon all of us in the Diocese of Bridgeport so that we may all grow together in holiness:

- Sustain and strengthen our Bishop Frank, as our good and faithful shepherd;
- Keep our priests faithful to your son Jesus, the High Priest; inspire them to be brothers of one heart and mind, especially as they preach the Gospel and celebrate the sacraments;
- Preserve our deacons in their ministry to your word and in charity to those who are in need;
- Let our religious be compelling examples of the Joy we can find in leaving behind all things to follow your Son;
- Make every household to be a home where Christ-like love abounds and holiness is nurtured;
- Open the hearts of our young people to hear your Son's call and offer their lives in service to your Church, especially as priests, deacons and religious.

May the Blessed Virgin Mary, the Mother of all Christians of the Clergy, pray for us and lead us to a deeper love for her Son and our Savior, in whose name we pray, Jesus Christ, who is Lord for ever and ever. Amen
